3) The order stopping the above Wajedars promotion for 6 months was passed in July 1917 after a full consideration of the facts of the case: and I do not think the matter should be reopened.

4) The effect of the order as it stands is to put off by six months not only the promotion to the time clan but also the subsequent promotions to higher classes: and I do not see how the Wajedars request to allow him to forego the pay of the 2nd class from Jan 20 can be granted without practically going back on the order.

19/ *2. --o--

In forwarding herewith an application dated the 22nd instant addressed to you by Mr. S.Abdul Wajid, Superintendent of Police, requesting that the order of Government deferring his promotion may be reconsidered, I have the honor to state that from the short experience I have had of this officer's work, I have found him t be enthusiastic and discharging his duties satisfactory.

To

C.S.BALASUNDARAM IYER, Esquire, B.A.,

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

Through

K.Mylar Rao, Esquire, B.A., B.L.,
Deputy Commissioner, Kadur District.

Sir,

Coupl Collection No. 213.

With reference to Government Proceedings No.J.306-10 Police 15-17-1 dated 26th July 1917, under which my promotion to the Third Class of Assistant Commissioners was deferred for six months, I beg very respectfully that the Government may be pleased to re-consider their Order.

2. The Government, after an elaborate enquiry into the case, were satisfied "that no malice or bad faith could be imputed" to me. The only point on which I have been held blame-worthy is that I failed to submit a report that had been called for by the Inspector-General of Police and failed to countermand instructions previously issued by me. While I have no wish to re-open a discussion of the merits of the case, I may be permitted to say with reference to this one point that I had an opportunity of explaining the whole case in person to the Inspector-General, when he was pleased to express the opinion that there was a good case. It was therefore that I did not submit a formal report and had no occasion to countermand instructions previously given in the usual official course. This is just the fact and I bonafide believed that this was sufficient, especially as the call for a report was not official but on the confidential diary. Even if the Government should still consider that there was failure of duty on my part in this respect, I beg very respectfully to urge that, having regard to the findings of Government that there was no malice or bad faith and that the complaint of indignity being offered at the time of arrest was false, the punishment of depriving me of my promotion for six months is severe in the extreme and such as to damp the enthusiasm of an officer who has always striven to discharge his duties faithfully and fearlessly. I beg that the Government may therefore be pleased to give me back my promotion to the Third Class with effect from the 5th January 1917.

3. If the Government on a consideration of my present representation should not be disposed to order my promotion to the Third Class from the date on which it fell due, I beg that I may at least be given the promotion to the Second -- Class with effect from 5th January 1920, that is, three years from the date on which the promotion to the Third Class --- became due (subject, of course, to my service in the interim being approved). This would not be precluded by a strict interpretation of the Government Order under advertence. The Government have ordered that it would be "quite sufficient to defer for six months the promotion to the Third Class then due to me. There was no intention expressed of deferring my subsequent increments and subjecting me to an ever recurring penalty lasting throughout my service, or of depriving me of my relative rank in the list of Assistant Commissioners.

I beg to remain,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

Abdul Wajid.
